

The Logic of Clearance Sales

We are not selling goods for less money than anybody else simply because we want to be kind to our customers. Nothing sort! We do it because it pays us, on the plain business principle that it is better to sell four yards on a profit of twenty than one yard on the profit of fifteen cents.

5c Soap 3c.

Soap frauds are as frequent as sin. Even the generally accepted pure soap is often half tallow—and mean tallow at that. And still pure soap is so cheap adulteration seems incredible. Suppose you skip the risk and buy this—White Castile Soap—formula 90% pure olive oil, 10% edible tallow—pressed into 4-ounce bars, which dry out some. They weigh about 3½ oz. when you get them but isn't that a big soap weight for 3c? Until now, always 5c.

Gloves---Kid and Golf.

KID—A dollar gets almost double its due in the line of odd gloves offered in this sale. $1 and $1.25 Gloves in black, brown now 69c. Two and three clasp. The best choice is for mers.
F—Soft, warm, well knitted gloves in all colors. What a welcome than a timely bargain. These snug, "comfy" for bitter days—50c Golf Gloves 35c. 35c Golf Gloves 25c. Golf Gloves 19c.

Furs---Half Price.

Women alert to embellish their homes at little cost had better see our rugs. But remember these sales are eagerly watched for and the rugs quickly bought. This hint for promptness. Read on.

$2 Velvet Rugs $1½.
$2½ Smyrna Rugs $2.
$2.75 Axminster Rugs $2.25.
$5 Velvet Rugs $4.

All above are hearth size.
A few large rugs—3 yds. wide, 4 yds. long—genuine Body in serviceable colors and artistic patterns, reduced from $15.

10c Cheviot Shirtings 7½c.

Serviceable and satisfactory—proved by the selling of hundreds of yards every year. Heavy quality, dark colors. Made for hard wear and victorious trips to the laundry.

15c Eider Plush 10c.

A new name for a different weave of the woolish cottons. A soft fleecy finish on both sides. Especially suitable for bath robes dressing sacks and short petticoats. Only a few patterns left, chiefly grays and tan. No guesswork about the saving either, its real and actual.

Flannels.

This is flannel weather, and good rattling items from the biggest, the best, the lowest priced flannels hereabouts, with prices further reduced, ought to be mighty interesting news for your pocket book. An excellent assortment of all wool plaid and check flannels in dark colors, low priced at 25c, further reduced to 19c yd.

$1½ Outing Gowns 75c.

Have you tried the comfort of these frost proof garments? Outing wearers can get rich pickings from the gowns that show a mite of soil from use in decorative display during the holidays. Dainty blues, pinks and creams. If you are not a convert to the comfort of outing night gowns, try them. They give the warmth of an extra blanket, without its weight and cost.

10c Princess Cashmere 6½c.

For kimono, home dresses, shirtwaists and wrappers this fabric offers dainty and practical possibilities. Never prettier colors or neater designs than in this assortment. The American manufacturer is constantly becoming more expert in color printing and these pretty cashmires are good examples of art applied to low priced goods—lower priced than usual now—almost two yards for the price of one!

SILK PETTICOATS.

A big return for a $5 investment. Good quality taffeta silk in black and the new changeable shades, made with deep ruffle set in the skirt which assures greater fullness, more rustle and longer wear.

8½c Percale 5c Yard.

We sell it with full knowledge and assurance of its excellence, while those who have bought it this season—and they are legion—will return for more if they need percale today. In blues and cardinals only.

Wise Women.

During the past weeks of stormy weather provident women have been wearing Black Sateen Petticoats because they have durability, comfort, economy and eightlines to recommend them. At the $1.25 and $1.39 Sateen skirts are now $1. Six different, pretty styles from which to choose. All the $1 skirts are now 75c but it's hardly safe to advertise them,—Christmas selling so decimated their ranks.

$1½ Comforts $1.

If you want to fully realize the money you can save in this sale just try to match these comforts for $1—you'll not come within 50c of it, for at the original price of $1½ they were surprising qualities. Filled with hand picked cotton, covered with fast color print figured on one side, plain on the other.

Have You Seen Our Umbrellas

Prices range from 50c to $6½ and every umbrella is an excellent value for its price, but to three lines we want to call particular attention.

50c UMBRELLAS.

A special lot that will give really reliable service. They have good steel frames, excellent cotton serge coverings with selvedge edge, and natural wood handles in many designs. Nothing better for children's school umbrellas. Sizes for men and women also.

75c UMBRELLAS.

Paragon frames, steel ferrules, coverings of fast black French gingham or mercerized cotton, straight and crook handles of light or dark wood. Until you see these, you will not believe how much umbrella goodness can be bought for 75c.

$1 UMBRELLAS.

Artistic handles add much to an umbrella's beauty, but it must have other merits too. You will find the handle beauty of these umbrellas fully equalled by the worthiness of their covers and frames. We have never been able to present such values for one dollar before.
